

Certificate

for qualification as

Manager Regulatory Affairs Medical Devices International

Mrs Veronika Raquet

took part in the course to become "Manager of "Regulatory Affairs Medical Devices International". This course is arranged by the LGA, a subsidiary of the TÜV Rheinland Group, and the Ulm University of Applied Sciences. The final assessment, according to the guidelines of the University, results in a

Grade Point Average of "good" (2,3)

This seminar includes the following lectures totalling 112 lessons, the workload equivalent to seven (7) ECTS credit points:

- Qualification for market access - national and international requirements for the development and manufacture of medical products
- National and international requirements for clinical assessment and approval of medical products
- National and international aspects of the bringing to market and monitoring of products during the product life cycle.

Ulm, 4th May 2009

Chairman of Examination Board

President of University of Applied Sciences

Prof. Dr. R. Brucher

Prof. Dr. A. Bubenzer